Hi Everyone!

Please join the San Diego AIHA local section on December 2, 2009 at 12:00 p.m. for a fun lunch meeting where you'll be challenged to think outside the box in the field of industrial hygiene!

TOPIC: Scent Detection Dogs in the Health and Safety World

The presentation will discuss the background and uses of scent detection dogs, the types of scents or odors they can detect, and how scent detection dogs can assist health and safety professionals. The safety to the dog, and how the dog can be utilized in environments that will protect both the dog as well as the environment will be presented. Agent 99 and friends will be there for a live demonstration.

PRESENTER: Bradley A. Prill, CIH, CSP and Agent 99

Bradley Prill founded Industrial Safety Professional Incorporated after sixteen years of experience in project management, administration, training, and hands-on field service for all facets of Industrial and Environmental Health, Hygiene and Safety. Mr. Prill graduated from the University of Minnesota-Duluth with a Bachelors of Applied Science degree in Electronic Engineering and a Master Degree in Industrial Safety with an emphasis on Industrial Hygiene. After completing his formal education he became certified as an Industrial Hygienist (CIH) by the American Board of Industrial Hygiene. In addition he is certified by the Board of Certified Safety Professionals (CSP) as a Certified Safety Professional. He is a member in good standings of the American Society of Safety Engineers (ASSE) and American Industrial Hygiene Association (AIHA). Mr. Prill has been trained and certified by the World Dog Organization as a K-9 Handler for mold detection dogs and is the sole handler of the ISPI Mold Detection Dog, Agent 99.

Agent 99 - is a black Labrador Retriever with over 800 hours of professional training for mold detection. She is capable of detecting eighteen different kinds of mold. She is retested on a quarterly basis and recertified annually. She and her handler are a specialized team and train daily to keep their skills at maximum accuracy. She is certified by the World Detection Dog Organization as a Mold Detection Dog.
